

Who founded the Share Our Wealth Society in 1934?

Senator
Huey Long
of Louisiana

Who was the leader of the National Union for Social Justice?

Father
Charles E.
Coughlin

What civil rights measures did
President Harry S.
Truman enact in 1948?

He banned racial discrimination in federal government hiring practices and ordered the desegregation of the armed forces.

What happened in Little Rock,
Arkansas, in 1957
concerning race relations?

President Dwight D.
Eisenhower sent 10'000
National Guardsmen and 1'000 paratroopers to control mobs and enable blacks to enroll in Central High School.

What is Rosa Parks famous for?

Rosa Parks's arrest on December 11, 1955, was a catalyst for the civil rights movement. She was arrested for refusing to give up her seat on a bus to a white male passenger.

Why did President John F. Kennedy send the National Guard into Mississippi in the fall of 1962?

To ensure that a black student, James Meredith, could enroll at the University of Mississippi

Who were the two leading figures in the Black Power movement during the 1960s?

Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown

What was a common criticism of universities by student protesters during the 1960s?

The common criticism was bureaucracies were indifferent to students' needs.

What split the antiwar movement during the 1960s?

It split between those favoring violence and those opposed to it.

What was the class origin of the women's movement?

The women's movement was largely limited to the middle class.

What event was a catalyst for the gay rights movement?

A police raid in 1969 on the Stonewall Inn, a gay hangout in the Greenwich Village section of New York City.

What was the name of the militant antiabortion group that became active during the early 1990s?

Operation Rescue

The eighteenth-century
European intellectual movement is known as the ____?

Enlightenment

